Revise, Rejuvenate and Renew Yukon's Parks

The City of Yukon Parks and Recreation Department is continuing to hold public meetings regarding the revising, rejuvenating, and renewal of its current 11 city parks. These meetings have been set up to allow for public input and discussion of the current use of the parks. Everyone is invited, but in particular those citizens who are interested in improving the park system.

The first part of the meeting will be a short, informational Powerpoint presentation regarding the park and its current uses. The second part of the meeting, participants will be broken into brainstorming groups. These brainstorming groups will be asked to record the ideas that their group comes up with, in revising, rejuvenating and renewal of the park showcased. In conclusion, participants will rejoin as a group and the findings of the brainstorming sessions will be discussed.

The next meeting will be for Hilcrest & Sunrise Parks and will be held on October 23rd, Kimbell Park will be on October 30th, City Park on November 13th, Freedom Trail Park and Chisholm Trail Park on November 20th. Each meeting will be held at the Mabel C. Fry Library, 1200 Lakeshore Drive, beginning at 7 pm and will last approximately 1 hour.
